ON HER EAR.

The Reese River Reveille tells of an Austin man who was reading a story to his wife the other night, and came to a piece of "fine writing," in which the ear of the heroine was compared to 'some creamy-white, pink tinted shell of ocean."

"By the way," said the husband, cutting short his reading, "that description of the ear reminds me of your ear—you have an ear like a shell."

It was the first compliment she had received from him since the early days of their marriage, and a blush of pride suffused her face as she asked:

"What kind of a shell, darling?"

"An abalone shell," he replied.

She had never before heard of or seen an abalone shell, but she did not want to display her ignorance, so she made up her mind to hunt it up in the "Condensed Conchology" that ornamented the center table. Next morning the first thing she did after her husband left the house was to hunt up the description of an abalone shell. She found it. It was described as a shell about the size of an ordinary wagon wheel. She nursed her wrath during that day, and when her husband came home that night she met him at the door with the towel roller, and now his ear is as big as an abalone shell, but it looks like a piece of pounded beef.

LOVE A REALITY.

There is nothing on earth worthy of being compared for a moment with love. No other thing can give by itself unalloyed happiness.

A loveless life is worthless, though passed in luxury, and crowned with the proudest laurels of successful ambition.

A life well set about with love is blessed, though haunted by that relentless fate which seems to-day, to some men what the world calls success.

To have been without a parent's love in childhood, without the love of brothers and sisters; to have past youth without that more romantic love which makes heaven of earth; and to live on in maturity, neither feeling nor inspiring that strong enduring love which makes any sacrifice easy, and toil pleasant, any burden light, so that it benefits the loved ones, is to be poor indeed—so poor that pitying angels have no alms to give that can do any good.

And, yet, how many know nothing of love, or only understand the word in its coarsest sense, so that one blushes to have uttered it in such presence.

How many, more pure than these, sneer at it as a delusion and absurdity, notwithstanding that pure love is not a thing of the senses, but of the soul; not a flame, flickering and flashing over the passionate time of life, but a soft, steady glare, lighting it from the cradle to the grave, and, one may even hope, burning on beyond it, since heaven itself is love.

SWAGGER.

The swagger and braggart never works. He talks loudly of what he can do and has done, and tries to impose upon his neighbors by a boastful manner. But he amounts to nothing after all. How much of this silly swagger and swash is to be seen on all sides! Nature somehow made a special provision, however, for keeping her favorites quiet and concealed. The great thought is the one that comes to its birth in silence. The large man knows too well that the moment he stopped to brag he would lose his real advantage. "Never mind about these trifles," says Nature to him; "I will do far better by you if you will come to me." And in thus going he sees how lofty is humanity, how modesty helps to put all obstructions out of the way, and how that tranquil reserve which goes with genuine power, recruits his strength continually. On the other hand, pretensions and humbug go but so far at the farthest. They are sure to be found out. Let a wind bag alone long enough, and it will collapse at last, no one cares when or how.

A sad story comes from Kentucky of two tramps who were struck by lightning and killed, while at work to get money enough to pay for their dinners. Here's another proof of the superior shrewdness of the northern tramp, who is very careful never to offend Providence in that way.

FORTY YEARS BEFORE THE PUBLIC.

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder-blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for a rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them A FAIR TRIAL.

For all Bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

☞ Insist on your druggist or storekeeper giving you the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Sold by all respectable druggists and country storekeepers generally.

To those wishing to give DR C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS a trial, we will mail post paid to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twenty-five cents.

EQUALIZED.

The State Board of Equalization closed its labors last week. In the published report of its proceedings we notice that it was decided to reduce the assessment of personal property in Macon county 29 per cent. 17 per cent. is also to be deducted from the assessment on lands, and 13 per cent. from that of town and city lots in this county. In Cook county 55 per cent. was added to personal property, 67 per cent. to lands and 52 per cent. to town and city lots. The largest per cent. added to the valuation in any county was in Macoupin, the valuations in that county being increased as follows: on personal property, 68 per cent., on lands, 132 per cent., and on town and city lots, 136 per cent. McLean county gets 3 per cent. added to personal property and lands, and 4 per cent to town and city lots.

SOUTHERN TACTICS IN INDIANA.

The following item of news shows that the bullying dodge, which has been so successfully resorted to by the Democrats in the Southern States, is to be tried in Indiana as well:

GREENCASTLE, IND., October 2.—After the Republican meeting at Fillmore, Saturday night, had dispersed, a crowd of twenty Democratic roughs attacked three boys who had remained, wearing Hayes and Wheeler uniforms Two Republican boys—William and Simpson Oliver—were wounded in the head with stones and clubs, William was shot in the left thigh, breaking the bone. William Day, the attacking party, was shot in the arm. The attack was unprovoked. The Fillmore Democracy says no Hayes and Wheeler uniform shall be worn there.

MR. BLAINE has been looking over the Hon. Charles Francis Adams' record in Congress, and has discovered a dark spot which, affecting as it does the reputation of a descendant of the noble family of Presidents, should be known of men that the country may not attribute to the man of to-day the virtues for which his ancestors were so justly revered. It appears that the most prominent action in Mr. Adams' Congressional career in 1861, after the election of Mr. Lincoln, was to propose an amendment to the National Constitution whereby the slaveholding States should have, through their Congressmen, the exclusive care of their institution, that no amendment looking to the abolition of slavery should ever be submitted by a non-slaveholding State, and, if submitted by a Southern member, should, in order to secure its adoption, be approved by the united South. That such a proposition as this should come from a descendant of the great Champion of Freedom is of itself a startling commentary upon the degeneracy of the age when considered in connection with the depraving influences that surround the average Democratic politician.

IT is just as well, we suppose, that the Greenback lunatics should run a little party of their own, and have it compressed between the great political organizations of the day. When they are ground out between the upper and nether millstones, they will neither feel better nor know more; but something of conceit may be squeezed out of them. Some of them, however, will never get over the tobacco worm of finance which they have screwed into the foliage of their powerful minds, and which is eating out the succulent core of their intellects.—Cincinnati Commercial.

CENTENNIAL NOTES.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27.

EDS. REPUBLICAN:—Thinking perhaps a few lines from one who is visiting the Centennial might be of a little interest, I have concluded to write you a few incidents of our journey here, and what we have seen.

We left Chicago last Monday at 5 o'clock p m., and the only thing of interest was the crossing of our train on a large boat, from Michigan to the Canada shore. There were four sleeping cars and two passenger coaches on the boat which we crossed in, the remaining cars taking another one, the "Michigan." It was wonderful to see with what care they transferred us from one shore to the other.

We arrived at Niagara Falls at three o'clock the next day, and rode out to see one of the wonders of nature It would be impossible to describe the grandeur of the scene by writing We stood on a platform within two feet of the first fall, which is 140 feet. The shower, which falls from the mist is very much like a shower in April. Those who go under the falls are obliged to wear rubber suits. There is such a charm in witnessing the different colors of the foam below and the mist that arises, that it holds a person spell-bound, until you feel that all you can do is to gaze in silent admiration. We rode down the inclined railway car, a distance of over two hundred feet, in about three minutes It is run by water power.

We left about 8 p. m., stopping at Buffalo and remaining over night. Took the Erie road at 5 o'clock next morning, to Elmira, and passed through some of the finest scenery I ever saw. It was one continued range of mountains, hills and valleys, with many white cottages situated in the most beautiful grass plots It looked like some fairy scene.

At Watertown we changed cars for the Lehigh Valley railroad, which led us through the Alleghany Mountains, and here the scenery was so grand every passenger in the car rose up and stood staring out of the windows. The mountains on some sides rose eight and ten hundred feet above us. The sides of some were one continued mass of rocks with a few trees, while others were covered with evergreens. The river lay right in view of the track all the way Our train went so swift at times it seemed as though we were flying. It would go around a curve so quick the cars would almost tip three-quarters over one side, and sometimes it seemed as though we would land in the river. But in our admiration we forgot the danger, and were safely landed at Mauch Chunk at half past eight that night. This place is quite a resort for city people, and is called the "Switzerland of America," the scenery is so grand Mt. Pisgah looms up off to the south as you enter the city. It is said to be fifteen hundred feet above the level of the sea. They have what they call a switch back train of cars which take you up to the summit of the mountain. There are several other mountains all around the place. The valley is not over three hundred feet wide in which the city is built. The population is said to be about four thousand. There are also the Fall of Glen Oke which are very interesting.

We left Mauch Chunck at 7.30 on Thursday morning, and arrived at Philadelphia about 12. There was said to be 150,000 strangers in the city on that day, as it was New York day, so you can imagine how difficult it was to find a boarding place. But we succeeded in finding an excellent one after a little delay. There were a great many who walked the streets all night, hotels and every place being full.

We have spent two days at the exposition but have not seen one tenth of the exhibition. It is impossible to examine articles very minutely, for it would take a person, as I heard one gentleman remark, thirty years (but I think that rather extravagant) to enter into details.

The Main Building is eighteen hundred feet hundred feet long. The annexe covers two acres.

The Art Gallery is a magnificent building of granite, glass and iron; the expense of building was one million dollars. On entering this there is a monument of a soldier 21 feet high, on the other is a bronze monument of a marine loading a large gun, with the men on the lookout. It weighs several tons. There is a large organ worked by two electric batteries. The Chinese had some elegantly carved wood work all black, chairs, tables and bed room sets have some beautiful designs of different images; flowers, serpents, birds, etc., from one inch to two and three feet in length. There is one bed room set which it took three men thirty years to build. The bed-stead, sides, top and all, were completely covered with the finest images, all carved in the wood, and the body was made of willow, as our cane seated chairs are made. There are also some of the finest wax figures, all life size. One represents Christ in the manger, with the princes bringing their offerings, so natural that you would think at first sight that they were living people.

We saw the carriage which belonged to General Washington, also several English carriages, they are heavy, clumsy looking things when compared to our American manufacture. Uncle Sam has one of the largest guns in the world here; its weight (if I remember right) is one hundred and fifteen thousand and eight pounds and takes a 20 inch ball. It takes 200 pounds of powder for the ball

But as I have written so long a letter I will close, as no doubt you have heard so much from the Centennial from others more interesting. But I have enjoyed it so much, I felt like the young convert in class meeting, as though I wanted to tell everybody how happy I was. Very Respectfully,

MRS. JAS. HAWORTH

P. S This is Pennsylvania's Day and at one time this afternoon there was said to be 224,000 people on the exhibition grounds.

ANOTHER SCHEME OF FRAUD

In 1861 the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company was reorganized, and the road from Pittsburg to Chicago sold under judicial proceedings to certain trustees. A new corporation was chartered by the State of Pennsylvania, to which trustees conveyed the said line of road. Samuel J. Tilden was the attorney who conducted said judicial proceedings. Samuel J. Tilden was one of the trustees who bought in the road. Samuel J. Tilden was one of the corporators and directors of the new Pennsylvania corporation to which the road was finally conveyed. Ever since that time he has been one of the chief managers of the road, and is now chairman of its executive directory, George W. Cass, an unscrupulous partisan of Tilden, being its president. This corporation, controlling from thirty to fifty millions of capital and from four to six thousand employes, can politically crush Ohio and Indiana like a boa constrictor, and we have it upon reliable authority that it is the intention of these desperate political managers to precipitate a large number of illegal voters into both States just before the election under the pretext of railroad repairs and other operations. Forewarned is forearmed, and our Republican friends along the line of that road and in all the neighboring counties should exercise the utmost vigilance to prevent such a movement. These political pirates who are sailing under the assumed flag of "reform" will stop at no act of villainy to carry their point.

THE Charleston (S. C.) News and Courier of September 29 has a leading editorial article advising Democrats to employ no colored men unless they will promise to vote the Democratic ticket. With shameless effrontery it makes out the programme: "Make them (the negroes) understand that when hands are wanted only those who voted the Democratic ticket will be taken, and that, when money is to be paid out or any employment whatsoever is to be furnished, the Democratic voters will be preferred to all others, and they will open their eyes, see light for the first time, and give a solid support to the Democratic candidates. Do this in every county, and Hampton will be elected by an overwhelming majority. The game is in our own hands, if the cards are played right." This is not in a Democratic secret circular. It is the concluding portion of an editorial article in the leading Democratic paper in the State. It is the South Carolina idea of conducting a political campaign. With this article before them, the readers have the key to the recent troubles in South Carolina. If the negroes will not consent to abandon principle, then they must be frightened by the show of force. If this does not compel them to vote for the Democratic candidates, they must not be allowed to vote at all—that is, they must be shot. South Carolina, boldly advocating proscription and threatening worse, presents a picture in 1876 akin to that of South Carolina at the opening of the war.

IF there is one thing that shocks the Democratic mind more than another, it is the news that the fall trade is opening briskly. The testimony is overwhelming as to the fact. Manufactories are starting up. The stores are filling larger orders than usual. Country merchants are in better spirits than they have been since the panic. This is all good news, but it does not please the Democratic party, which assumes that there is no possible salvation for us save in the rule of the Southern Confederate politicians, who, when they dragged their constituents into war, manifested dazzling incapacity.

EFFINGHAM, ILL., October 2.—There is great activity here among the Democrats who are trying to get up a large delegation to the great soldiers' and sailors' reunion at Indianapolis on the 5th inst. They are to have round trip tickets at $4, provided they can sell 200 tickets. Should they send 200 persons to the meeting not exceeding ten will have ever smelled gunpowder except a few who fought in the Confederate ranks. The parties mostly interested in the matter are the most violent copperheads, and men who during the war denounced our soldiers as Lincoln hirelings A reward of a fine suit of clothes has been offered to the person selling the highest number of tickets.

ST. PAUL, October 3.—At Faribault, at 7 o'clock this morning, Henry Cavernick, a policeman approached the guard at the jail in which are confined the Younger brothers and the Northfield bandits. The guard halted Cavernick, and inquired, "Who are you?" Cavernick replied, "Don't you know me? I am a policeman," and continued to advance, at the same putting his hand to his breast, probably to display his star, when the guard shot him through, near the heart, killing him instantly. The policeman had been ordered to keep away from the jail at night, and the guards to shoot any one who persisted in coming to them, unless identified.

Hope is the star that lights up the soul and banishes from its depths the gloom of despair.

THE FIRST GUN.

And it was Fired by Colorado.

BRILLIANT REPUBLICAN VICTORY REPORTED.

State Ticket, Congressman and Legislature Carried.

THE CONNECTICUT TOWM ELECTIONS.

General Banks Nominated by the Republicans.

DENVER, Oct. 3—Comparisons will be made with the vote of 1874, when Patterson, democrat, for congress, was elected by 2,163 majority. Arapahoe county has elected the entire republican ticket by a majority of 300, a republican gain of 648; Jefferson county, republican majority 75, republican gain 213; Gilpin county, republican majority 200, a gain of 256; Boulder county, republican majority estimated at 200, a republican gain of 234; Park county, estimated republican majority 75, a republican gain of 230; ElPaso county, estimated 350 republican majority, a republican gain of 295, Pueblo county, estimated democratic majority 100, democratic loss of 85, Los Animas county, estimated republican majority 300, a democratic loss of 73; Bent county, democratic majority 100, democratic loss, 53.

The republicans have undoubtedly carried Colorado by a decided majority, and elected the entire state ticket, congressman, and secured the legislature by a majority in both branches. The legislature elects two United States senators, and three presidential electors.

DENVER, COL., Oct. 3.—Colorado has gone republican. The mountain counties north of the Arkansas river are all republican. The democrats have lost ground in their Southern Colorado strongholds.

Reports received from various points indicates a peaceful election. The vote will be the largest ever cast in Colorado. Reports from principal points at 3 p. m. indicate heavy republican gains everywhere over the election of 1874. The chairman of the republican state committee claims the state by 2,000 majority, and the legislature by forty on joint ballot.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—A dispatch from Hartford says of the annual town election, yesterday, in Connecticut, that the towns within easy range of Hartford, which gave 869 democratic majority in April, now give 136 republican majority. Hartford itself, elects a mixed ticket, including the republican candidate for select man. Vernon, a tie last election, gives 150 republican majority. Waterbury, has 80 democratic majority, against 317 last year. New Britain shows 12 majority for the democratic candidate for selectman. Manchester, democratic last year by 20 majority, gives a republican majority of 110. Winchester shows a democratic gain of 20, while Plymouth, in the same county gives 20 republican gain. A few towns, names not given in the dispatch, show democratic gains.

NEW YORK, October 3.—A dispatch from Atlanta states that General Ruger, commanding the department of the South, ordered the Quartermaster at Savannah to turn over to the mayor of that city, for the benefit of yellow fever sufferers, government commissary stores amounting in value to $5,000.

The post band at General Ruger's headquarters, gave a concert for the benefit of sufferers of Savannah and Brunswick epidemic.

The physicians of this city, will ship to Savannah, to-day a quantity of quinine and blankets, the mayor of Savannah having telegraphed that these were sadly needed, but that medical aid was not required.

SAVANNAH, October 3.—Yellow fever interments, 23.

PORTLAND, ME., October 3.—This city has contributed $2,325 to the yellow fever sufferers.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Oct. 3.—Geo. Melville, alias Sandy, a noted gambler and confidence man, and T. B. Clinton, confederate, were, to-night, by Judge Love, of the United States district court, sentenced to five years hard labor, each, in the penitentiary at Fort Madison. They were convicted of passing bogus money in similitude of gold coin

THE NATIONAL CREDIT

Boston Advertiser.

The dangers which would assail the credit of the nation in the event of a Democratic triumph are of many kinds, and it is impossible to overstate them. The "solid South" is the inevitable condition of the election of Tilden and Hendricks, and is ominous of every calamity that can happen to a nation. The apprehension alone of a revision of the tariff in an administration dominated by the Southern Democracy would destroy confidence and paralyze industry to an extent unknown in this generation. The certainty of an indefinite postponement of resumption, under the pressure of Southern necessities, helped out by ignorance and demagogism from other sections, would put an ineffaceable stain of repudiation upon the public credit. The crowd of hungry and persistent claimants, the constituency of the new administration, for reimbursement out of the national Treasury for losses said to have been caused by the army of the United States in saving the life of the nation, would still add more to the burden of discredit already too heavy to be borne.

In regard to this last source of danger it is the habit of Northern journals and orators to scout it with flippant and airy confidence. No such assurance comes from the Democratic press and speakers of the South. The States counted upon to furnish the electoral votes for Governor Tilden are those which are to profit by the payment of these claims. In anticipation that the democratic party would return to power in 1877, the partial disguise maintained since the war was thrown off, and claimants representing more than two thousand million dollars put themselves in position to prosecute their claims aggressively.—There they stand, a mighty power in this election, which Gov. Tilden and his Northern supporters cannot oppose, and dare not offend. These claims are exclusive of all losses caused by the Confederate army or by the Confederate authorities in aid of the rebellion, payment of which is forbidden by the fourteenth amendment, but are for rent, supplies and property used by the Union army in suppressing the rebellion.

In the event of the election of Gov Tilden the centre of political power will be south of the Ohio river. This misgovernment of the southern states, under democratic rule, has only been surpassed by that of New York city under the power of Tammany. Together, nothing but the honest purpose and robust loyalty of the people would prevent them from degrading the national credit to the level of the typical democratic state, and even those saving qualities would not be able to avert the vast temporary mischief which such a combination will bring upon the country.

The Daily Republican.

DECATUR, ILLINOIS:

Wednesday Evening, October 4.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce the name JACOB LICHTENBERGER as an Independent candidate for Sheriff of Macon county.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

..The cellar under the store occupied by Close & Griswold is to be drained into the new sewer laid on East Main st.

..Call on Niedermyer, near the Mound, for the best five cent cigars.

..Hundreds of people visited the park yesterday and to-day, where the work of putting the fountain in position is in progress.

..It is feared that the later varieties of potatoes may be damaged by frost, as the tops are yet green.

..Taylor's back line connects with all trains by day or night.

..Billy Niedermyer has a full line of the best grades of coffee.

..Shows at the Opera House are some what scarce, but quite as plenty, as the purses of the people will justify.

..H. Post has just received a new invoice of watches, clocks and jewelry, which he is selling very cheap. Call and see him.

..Everybody that wants a nice fitting boot should leave their measure with J. P. Marsh. He will give them "fits."

..Cato, the Younger, when speaking in the Roman Senate on the punishment to be inflicted on Rome's great rival, said: "Carthage must be destroyed."—The same thing another great man said of dirt and filth. Hence the existence of B T. Babbitt's Best Soap.

..We are having comparative exemption from the operations of burglars just now. Perhaps the members of the fraternity are paying their respects to the people of other towns and cities about this time. It is well, however, to keep a sharp look-out, and not be caught napping.

..The Illinois Annual Conference of the M. E. Church commences its session at Paris to-day. The body numbers about one hundred and fifty members, and its business will occupy the time until Monday or Tuesday of next week. Bishop Wiley, of Boston, is the presiding officer.

..We understand that several of our people intend to go to Terre Haute on Saturday next, it being the occasion of the grand Republican rally at that place. Hon. R. G. Ingersoll and Gen. Dan. Sickles are to be the principal speakers on the occasion.

The Ball Last Evening.—The ball given last evening at Powers' Hall, by the Irish Benevolent Society, drew a fair company numerically, and a very pleasant evening was passed. Excellent music was furnished by Ebert's band, and; everything passed off in the most satisfactory manner.

Funeral Obsequies.—The funeral of Aaron Misenhelter which took place from his late residence yesterday afternoon, was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Horace Reed, and were solemn and impressive. The Odd Fellows, of which order the deceased was a member, had charge of the burial services, and performed escort duty to the remains of their late brother. The city officials attended the funeral in a body to attest their respect for deceased, who had been a member of the city police force for several years. On the return of the procession from the cemetery the city officers were escorted to their headquarters by the Odd Fellows.

The Macedonian Cry.—From all parts of the county there come calls for Republican speakers to address the people on the current political issues of the day. People are beginning to open their eyes to the true issues involved in the campaign. They are waking up to the fact that the entire aim of the Democrats is to pull wool over the eyes of the people, and keep the real question involved out of sight. When simmered down the only point at issue is whether loyal men or rebels shall have control of the government, and the intelligent people of Macon county are getting their eyes open to that fact.

Two Deaths in One House the Same Day.—Two children of Mr. Hutchinson, living in the north east part of the city, died of scarlet fever last evening, aged about seven and four years respectively. The same family has two other children sick with the same disease. The affliction is all the more severe on account of the absence of the husband and father in Kansas.

BEST BAKING STOVE THEY EVER SAW.—Housekeepers who have used the CHARTER OAK for years say it is the best baking stove they ever saw, bakes quickly and evenly with little fuel, and clean as a pin.

Every kind and style of curtain fixtures and curtain goods may be had at Abel & Locke's.

WHY WILL YOU VOTE THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET?

DECATUR, ILL., Oct. 3, 1876

EDS. REPUBLICAN:—We are told by some [illegible] have always voted the republican ticket, that they intend to vote for Samuel J. Tilden at the ensuing November election. What good do they expect to accomplish by so doing? Is democracy, as now taught, better than republicanism? Is Tilden a better man than Hays?

Take the testimony of each party in regard to its candidate before they were nominated and what are the facts? A goodly portion of the democratic press were loud in their denunciation of S. J. Tilden long before the St. Louis convention, warning the party against his nomination, affirming that Tilden was no reformer; that his connection with Tweed, and with the ruin of a number of railroads, and the fact of his immense wealth, so mysteriously accumulated, were self-evident proof of his being a corrupt and dangerous man. The Brooklyn Argus, a democratic sheet, says Tilden only turned on his old friend, Tweed, to save himself; and this at the last hour. June 20th, 1870, the Chicago Times said: "Tilden and Hendricks combined would be a guarantee of the success of the Hayes party even in Indiana." "Such a combination would carry a certificate of political fraud on the face of it." "The effect would be simply to fill all honest men on both sides of the fence with contempt for such double-faced trickery." "Tilden and Hendricks combined would be a trademark of political dishonesty that all honest citizens would spurn." June 21st, 1876, it charges Tilden with swindling in connection with his mining interest at Marquette, the Lake Superior region. June 23rd, 1876, the Times charges that, because Tilden was the great railroad lawyer and had stolen so much from the different railroads, therefore he was unfit to become a "reform candidate for the Presidency." In the same issue it charges Tilden with a certain sum of money for specific purposes, diverts it from those purposes into his own bank account." June 24th, 1876, says the Times, speaking comparatively of the two men, Hayes and Tilden: "It is entirely certain that Mr. Tilden is not a better man than Hayes, nor so good a one." And yet after all these facts, we are told some republicans will vote for Tilden.

Throw away the results of the war give full sway to that disloyal sentiment which so universally prevails in the entire South of to-day. How can they do it? What have they against R. B. Hayes? Is he not honest? Is he not competent? Will they, dare they, run the risk of so soon restoring the control of the government into the hands of those who, so few years ago done so much to set up a separate confederacy? In the name of all that is good, we hope not.

CENTENNIAL.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. M. P. Murphy and his family left to-day for Wayne county, Indiana, where they will spend a few weeks visiting friends.

Hon. W. R. Carle, of Wapella, the Democratic candidate for representative, is in town to-day. He considers his chances pretty good

Brig. Gen. Wood F. Townsend, of Danville, came over to day to fill the appointments of Gen. Black at Maroa and Macon, this afternoon and evening, the General being unable to come on account of sickness.

Crooked Perambulations.—Yesterday afternoon "Jim" Dilner made a little too free with "benzine," and it got the better of him. Under the inspiration of his potations he started to circumnavigate the town, in which operation he took up all the sidewalk and not a small part of the street. To this the police demurred, and took the gentleman to the calaboose, where he dreamed away the fumes of whisky; and this morning deposited the usual three dollars and trimmings with Justice Albert. "Jim" is a festive youth, and has had considerable experience in the "benzine" business.

Monthly Meeting.—The regular monthly meeting of the Decatur Benefit and Building Association was held last evening at the County Treasurer's office, and the following amounts were loaned at the premiums indicated:

$600 at 33 per cent.
100 at 35 "

—Making the aggregate loaned $1,500, and the aggregate of premiums $503.

Notice to Teachers.—The re-organization of the Macon county Teachers' Association will take place at the court house, on Saturday, Oct. 7th. Some interesting exercises are expected. A full attendance of the teachers is desired.

A. COLEMAN, Sec.

Minckley & Dodson are still supplying the wants of the public with clothing and underwear, socks and notions, at prices which defy competition. Goods consigned to them must be closed out at once, and they are sold without regard to price or sacrifice. Come, everybody, and get the benefit of these wonderful bargains.

New Millinery Goods.—The fall stock of millinery goods, now arriving at Falconer & Hurd's store on Merchant street, embraces many novelties in the way of ties, etc., which will prove attractive to the ladies. All the new styles of hats and bonnets are to be found here, and as they were selected by Mrs. Hurd herself, in New York, they will be found especially adapted to the wants of Decatur ladies. sep29 d1w

IN MEMORIAM.

At the regular meeting of Decatur Lodge, No. 65, I. O. O. F., held Tuesday evening, Oct. 3, 1876, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the All-Wise ruler of the universe to remove from our midst by the hand of death, our much-esteemed and well-beloved brother, AARON MISENHELTER; and

WHEREAS, It is with deep and sincere regret that we are called upon to perform the last sad act of love and friendship to the memory of our brother, whose loss we deeply feel and sadly mourn; therefore,

Resolved, That by the death of our esteemed and much-beloved brother, Aaron Misenhelter,, the Lodge has lost an honored and faithful member, his neighbors a kind friend, and the community a good citizen, who in life possessed those noble traits of a good and humane Odd Fellow, and who by his acts won the esteem and confidence of every member of the Order, and by his kindly acts of humanity, so often displayed while in the line of his duty, either as an officer or member of this Lodge, he sealed the bond of mutual friendship and love in the hearts of his fellow brothers of the order.

Resolved, That we as a Lodge tender to the bereaved widow and family of our departed brother, our heartfelt sympathies in this, their sad hour of bereavement and deep affliction, bidding them not to mourn for one who has been so suddenly taken from them, for beyond this earthly Lodge his name is enrolled upon the Book of the members of the Lodge above, and where he is now at rest.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the city papers for publication, and also handed to the family of our deceased brother.

AN INQUIRY.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN:—Times are very hard, indeed; therefore it becomes those officials who have the levying of the taxes to make the burden as light as possible upon the people. The levy for school purposes has decreased annually under the admirable management of Mr. John Ullrich, president of the board.—The city only requires five thousand dollars more than last year, which is reasonable, when the vast amount of improvements now being made are taken into consideration. But the question is, "What do the Commissioners of Highways want with $11,500?"

Will some one please answer?

MILLIONS

Physicians Cornered!

I suppose there is not in the whole of a physician's experience anything in human suffering which calls forth his sympathy and pity, to such an extent, as to witness the excruciating pains of a poor mortal suffering from the fearful disease of Rheumatism. Heretofore there has been considerable diversity of opinion among medical men as to the true character of this disease; some locating it in the fibrous or muscular tissues of the system, and others viewing it as an acute nervous disorder, but it is now generally admitted to be a disease arising from a poison circulating in the blood, and further it is admitted that rheumatism can never be thoroughly cured without exterminating such poisonous matters from the blood by a constitutional internal remedy. We feel confident that none will be better satisfied and rejoice more than the conscientious physician, who has found out that a true cure for this stubborn disease has been discovered. The following testimony from a Boston business man cannot fail to satisfy all that the

is a wonderful Medical Discovery.

Home Testimony.

BOSTON, Jan. 1st, 1875.

PROF. ALPHONSE HILLER:

Dear Sir—I desire to state that for the past three years I have been troubled greatly troubled with rheumatic pains; so severe was the last attack that I was compelled to remain in bed a helpless sufferer, and this is the most hurried season of my business too. A friend brought me two bottles of your valuable medicine, the DIAMOND RHEUMATIC Cure, and with pleasure I state that those two bottles affected a permanent cure upon me. Six months have since passed, and no return of this terrible disease has troubled me; I have on various occasions since recommended the DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE to several of my afflicted neighbors, and always with a uniform result—a certain and perfect cure in each case. I am willing to be interviewed and verbally satisfy any fellow sufferer of the truth of this statement.

Yours respectfully,
P. SHEEAN, Merchant Tailor,
88 Sudbury Street.

The discoverer of this medicine has walked the aisles of the hospitals of London and Paris for the last twenty years, making Rheumatism a specialty, and the prescription from which this remedy is compounded is all he ever used in the treatment of this disease. For the past year it has been used with perfect success and satisfaction in the hospitals of Montreal, and is recommended by the very best physicians in that city as a safe, speedy and positive cure of either gout or rheumatism.

In simple cases sometimes one or two doses suffice. In most chronic cases it is sure to give way by the use of four or five bottles.

This medicine is for sale by all Druggists throughout the United States and Canada. If it happens that your druggist has not got it in stock, ask him to send for it to

THE SUBSCRIBER WOULD RESPECTfully announce to the citizens of Decatur and Macon and adjoining counties, that he has secured the EXCLUSIVE RIGHT to

MANUFACTURE AND SELL

MERRILL & BARTLETT'S

Water-Purifying

Rubber Bucket Chain Pump,

And is prepared to furnish said Chain Pumps on short notice.

The advantages of this Pump over many others are many. The Chain being buttonless, it is much lighter, consequently it is not liable to break, and works much easier. The RUBBER BUCKETS which are attached to the Chain will not wear the Tubing, consequently it will last longer than when Metal Buttons are used. It is, positively, ANTI-FREEZING. It is a positive WATER PURIFIER, as each Bucket is constructed with an AIR CHAMBER, which carries a given quantity of pure air into the water, which immediately diffuses through the entire body of water, purifying and cleaning, and rendering it fit for use.

RUPTURE A speedy and radical cure for Rupture or hernia, in young or old, guaranteed by the Judson method of treatment. "A solid cure or no fee. Call on or write to Dr. Judson, 705 Chestnut street, St. Louis, Mo.

Dr. Whittier,

617 St. Charles street, St. Louis, Mo.

A regular graduate of two Medical Colleges, has been longer engaged in the special treatment of all Venereal, Sexual and Chronic Diseases than any other Physician in St. Louis, as city papers show, and all old residents know.

Syphilis, Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Orchitis, Hernia, or Rupture, all Urinary Diseases and Syphilitic or mercurial affections of the throat, skin or bones, are treated with unparalleled success, on latest scientific principles. Safely, Privately.

Spermatorrhea, Sexual Debility and Impotency, as the result of Self-abuse in youth, sexual excesses in maturer years, or other causes, and which produce some of the following effects: nervousness, seminal emissions, debility, dimness of sight, defective memory, pimples on the face, physical decay, aversion to society of females, confusion of ideas, loss of sexual power, etc., rendering marriage improper or unhappy, are permanently cured. Pamphlet (36 pages) relating to the above, sent in sealed envelopes, for two postage stamps. Consultation at office or by mail free, and invited, a friendly talk or his opinion costs nothing. When it is inconvenient to visit the city for treatment, medicines can be sent by express or mail everywhere. Curable cases guaranteed, where doubt exists it is frankly stated. Office hours: 9 A. M. to 7 P. M. Sundays, 12 M. to 1 P. M.

Pamphlet, to any address, for Two Stamps.

MANHOOD All about it, sent by mail for 10 cents.
WOMANHOOD Every woman should read it. 10 cents.
Sent sealed, all three, for 20 Cents.
Manhood and Womanhood in German, both together, illustrated, 15 Cents.

MARRIAGE GUIDE. 260 PAGES. FINE PLATES.

Elegant cloth and gilt binding. Sealed for 60c. Over fifty wonderful pen pictures, true to life; articles on the following subjects: Who may marry, who not, why. Proper age to marry. Who marry first, Manhood, Womanhood, Physical decay. The effects of celibacy and excess. Who should marry; How life and happiness may be increased. The Physiology of Reproduction, and many more. Those married or contemplating marriage should read it.

After a life-long practice, I assert from human as well as moral conviction, it ought to be read by all adult persons, then locked up, not laid around or lost, as it is worthy of re-reading. It contains the cream of medical literature, thoughts gathered in an extensive practice, and worth to any one who will give it a careful perusal, ten times its costs.
